RESOLVED: THAT EVERY TIME YOU EAT
BUSTER BROWN BREAD YOU'LL WISH FOR MORE.
BUSTER BROWN.

The Making of Bread

has advanced more in the past few years than almost any other branch of domestic economy. Our bakery is equipped in the most modern way. It is sunlit and sanitary; it is fired from outside so there is no dirt, ashes or dust inside; the machinery is absolutely perfect and all the bread making is in the hands of expert bakers. This is why we say Buster Brown Bread is perfect. Perfectly mixed and perfectly baked. Ware of imitators.

Buster Brown Bread

is wrapped in waxed paper to keep it clean and sweet from our oven to your table. 10c at all Grocers.

Talk on "The Saloons at Nine O'clock," Mrs. J. A. Potter.
Vocal solo, "The Stars are Shining," Mrs. O. A. Danielson, accompanied by Miss Emma Hoffman.

The first meeting of the music department of the Woman's club is being held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Potter. The program is in charge of Mrs. J. W. Lorentzen.

Parties

Louise Glass entertained several of her little friends with a party in celebration of her birthday anniversary on Tuesday afternoon. The table was decorated prettily in pink carnations and a birthday cake had five pink candles. Many games were played by the little folks and refreshments were served. The hostess received a number of pretty gifts. Those present were: Elizabeth Rogers, Dorothy Lewis, Helen Smithson, Elliott MacMath, Robert and Charles Glass.

Tuesday afternoon Misses Jean and Helen Krause, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krause, celebrated the 15th anniversary of their birth with a party. Little Miss Virginia Krause and master Joe Krause assisted in receiving the guests. The house was decorated throughout in orange and black, with witches, pumpkins and cats, carrying out the Halloween idea. "Banco" was the game played. Miss Mary Magoffin won the first prize, a witch's broom filled with candy. Miss Anne Magoffin won the second prize, a little pumpkin. The score cards were in orange and black. The table in the dining room was attractively decorated in Halloween novelties. The cloth was orange and black and the center stood a large cake; in the center of this was a bouquet of roses and around the cake were nine roses which held candles and around the roses were seven roses. Beneath the cake were the favors for each guest. Many gifts were received by the hostesses. Those present were: Mrs. J. D. Ponder and Mrs. Robert E. Roche, those present were: Misses Virginia Krause, Magoffin, Katherine Fasset, Helen Scharp, Helen Holland, Layon Sorrells, Elizabeth Kelly, Mary Kelly, Sylvia Arnold, Helen Rogers, Eva Murray, Marion Alms, Regina Carson, Mary Smith, Enid Alms, Margaret O'Connor, Virginia Krause, Billy and Joe Krause.

Out Of Town Visitors

Judge S. J. Isaacs, of Midland, Tex., who spent several days in El Paso on a visit to his daughter, Miss Maude Isaacs, a teacher in the local school, left Tuesday night for Sweetwater, Tex., where he will hold district court.

Dr. C. Hill, of Hill, N. M., accompanied by Lee Hill, of Wheeling, West Virginia, arrived here Tuesday from Wheeling and will leave this evening for the Hill ranch near Dona Ana. Dr. Hill owns a tract of about 100 acres of valley land in the upper Mesilla valley and is one of the pioneers in the cultivation of the Dona Ana district.

Miss Ruth Moreley, of Austin, Tex., is in the city visiting Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Miss Frances Gillespie, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Alfred Kerr, for some time in El Paso, has returned to Bryan, Tex., to remain until the holidays, when she expects to return to El Paso for another visit with her sister and Mr. Kerr.

Corns—Their Cause and Cure.
As a general rule, corns are caused by ill fitting shoes. A shoe that presses on one particular spot will always cause a corn. There is only one way to cure a corn and that is to remove it entirely. The easiest and best way to remove it is to use White's Guaranteed Corn Cure. It is a "Pain Maker" product. It is comparatively new, but it is already well known in El Paso and throughout the southwest. This is largely due to our customers who, having tried it themselves, tell their friends about it. The price is only 25c a bottle. Made, sold and guaranteed by Scott White & Co., Mills Bldg., Scott White & Co., 204 Mills Bldg., Depot Pharmacy, near Union Depot. (Advertisement.)

WITNESS IN TRIAL SAYS
JEWS TORTURE CHRISTIANS

Former Jew Declares He Never Heard of Christian Blood Being Used for Ritual Purposes.

Kiev, Russia, Oct. 15.—At the conclusion of the trial of Mendel Beiliss, for the alleged murder of Andrew Yushinsky, the prosecution concentrated its efforts on an endeavor to prove that the Jews practiced "ritual murder" on Christians, by the testimony of archimandrite Antonomus. He is of Jewish descent, but was baptized when 10 years of age. He resides in the Kiev monastery, but formerly was attached to the monastery at Saratov.

Replying to questions, Antonomus declared that he knew of cases where Christian children had been tortured by Jews. He said:

"From my childhood, my masters and

Church Affairs

The Guild of St. Clement's church met on Tuesday afternoon at Kendrick hall. Mrs. C. H. Ladd was elected president of the guild, Mrs. Fred Easter having resigned the position. Plans for the winter were then discussed.

The Aid society of the First Congregational church will be entertained on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. J. J. Tyndall 408 Arizona street.

The Aid society of the First Christian church will hold an all-day meeting in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Eva Weeks will entertain the Delta Alpha club of the First Methodist church at luncheon on Friday afternoon at 6:30.

The first meeting of the study class of Trinity church, which occurred Tuesday afternoon, was led by Mrs. Geo. Oliver. Following the opening song and prayer, Mrs. I. J. Ayers gave the scripture lesson and an unique introduction to "The King." At the conclusion of her talk, Mrs. A. A. Lawler sang "I Shall Sing." Miss Some Day, Mrs. C. C. Corbin, Miss Norwood Wynn and Miss Blanche Gilbert were convincing in their remarks. Miss Wynn spoke of "The obligations of Christian women." Miss Gilbert of "Heavenism today in centers of civilization," and Mrs. Corbin of "The unreach women of our church." Mrs. Will Owen sang "O Lord Be Merciful" (Bartlett) and "There Were Ninety and Nine." She was accompanied by Mrs. Adine T. Owen. Artistic souvenirs in the form of autumn leaves, containing much miscellaneous information, were presented to each woman present. Chrysanthemums and cosmos decorated the parlor. Maps of various kinds were used in the study of the book Mrs. C. T. Race was hostess for the afternoon.

Weddings

J. I. McCullough received news today of the wedding in Belleville, Kan., of his daughter, Miss Ellen McCullough, to A. R. Stevenson, of that place. Miss McCullough resided for a time with her father in El Paso and has many friends and acquaintances here. She was attended by her sister, Miss Gail Martha McCullough, and the groom was attended by William White, of Kansas City.

The wedding of Mrs. Clara Temple Burnside and C. E. Bryan will be solemnized tonight at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Allen, 1260 Marquette avenue. Mrs. Burnside has lived in El Paso for the past five years and is well known. C. E. Bryan is one of the firm of Bryan Bros.

El Pasoans Returning

teachers warned me not to have relations with Jews because they tortured Christian children.

He cited several alleged cases. "One," he said, "a boy came to me and received baptism. Some time after Jews bribed a monk who helped them to remove the boy. Two years later the boy was found killed."

In response to the question: "What is the attitude of Jews in general towards us?" he replied:

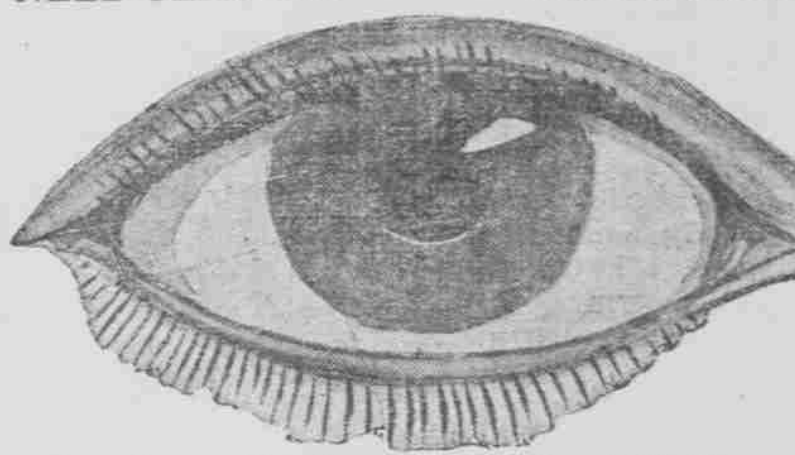

"If the bowels of the earth would open one would discover many bones of persons tortured to death by Jews."

Questioned still further, he said that when he was a Jew he had never heard that the Jews used Christian blood for ritual purposes.

Several workmen and officials employed in the Zaitsev works declared that Beiliss was working as usual on the day of the disappearance of Yushinsky.

HUMAN INTEREST IN THE WANT ADS

Lost Tickets, Teachers Wanted, Location Desired by a Doctor, Positions Open, Real Estate for Sale.

Human interest is found in almost every advertisement in The Herald want ad page. Each ad has its own little story attached.

Someone has lost two passes over the E. P. & S. W. road. Here is a chance to weave a romance. Lost ticket, misadventure, disappointed friend, climax left to the imagination.

Then there is a doctor who wants to get a New Mexico location. Evidently teachers are at a premium in some of the Texas towns, for there are two ads for teachers. A public school teacher is wanted at Ruidoso, Tex., and two teachers are needed in Presidio county so badly that the county judge is advertising for them. Of course he puts the ad in The Herald, knowing that this is the way to get sure results.

Anyone looking for a house to rent or to buy, or seeking rooms, has but to glance through the want ad columns to find a big variety from which to select.

And if anyone is seeking a job, let them look through The Herald ads, and they will soon find employment.

The Herald want ad columns are the meeting place of El Paso for those who want to possess and those who would dispose of what they possess.

SUPPOSE SUICIDE BY GIRL DEVELOPS INTO MURDER CASE
Thomasville, Ga., Oct. 15.—What at first appeared to be a suicide, in a local boarding house, by Miss Dorothy Haag, of Knoxville, Tenn., was definitely established to have been a murder and the local authorities have begun a search for the slayer to whose identity they have a clue.

The girl's skull had been crushed by a blunt instrument and although a revolver, with one chamber empty, lay beside her body when found, physicians declared she had suffered no bullet wound and no bullet had been found anywhere in the room she occupied.
